Introducing Dr Harald Stossier M.D., DIBAK of the Viva Mayr Clinic in Austria

We are delighted to invite you to this brand new Seminar for Healthcare Professionals on Orthomolecular Medicine, presented by Dr. Harald Stossier, M.D., DIBAK, from the Viva Mayr Clinic in Austria; and Tracy S Gates D.O., DIBAK.

Dr Stossier is renowned in the world of functional medicine and Applied Kinesiology and this promises to be a very exciting weekend for anyone working in the field of functional disease!

The Seminar will be held on 21-22 April 2012 at the Phoenix Health & Body Centre, Weald House, in Southwater, West Sussex, UK.

Background

Orthomolecular medicine, as conceptualized by double-Nobel laureate Linus Pauling, aims to restore the optimal environment of the body by correcting imbalances or deficiencies based on an individual's biochemistry, using substances natural to the body such as vitamins, minerals, amino acids, trace elements and fatty acids.

Topics to be covered during the weekend:

- Principles and introductory information
- The history of orthomolecular medicine
- Diet and nutrition
- Acid and alkaline balancing diet
- Important laboratory tests - interpretation and analysis
- Effects and interactions of different orthomolecular substances
- Heavy metals
- Orthomolecular disturbances and possible therapy blockades
- Therapy management for stress related diseases
- Burnout, glandular system
- Oxidative stress and oxidative stress effects
- Inflammatory pathways
- Weight management
- AK testing
- How to use the Pure Bio test kits

Cost:

£250.00, to include seminar notes and refreshments
